

JANNINE MILLER

Executive Director
Georgia Transportation Efficiency Authority (GTEA)

In January 2023, Jannine Miller began serving as Executive Director of the State Road and Tollway Authority (SRTA) and as Executive Director of the Georgia Transportation Efficiency Authority. Nominated by Governor Kemp and voted by the Boards of these vital transportation authorities, Ms. Miller leads three agencies that have the shared mission and focus of improving mobility in Georgia by providing reliable, safe, innovative, multimodal transportation solutions. In addition to serving as Executive Director of the Authorities, Ms. Miller serves as Governor Kemp's appointee as Director of Planning for the Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT). This builds on her more than two-decade career in the public and private sectors, serving in multiple other leadership, management, finance, policy, and planning roles, including Deputy Assistant Secretary at the U.S. Department of Transportation and Senior Advisor to the U.S. Agriculture Secretary.

Ms. Miller holds a Master of Business Administration in Global Commerce from Georgia Tech, as well as a Master of Public Administration and a Bachelor of Science degree in Community Nutrition from Georgia State University.

ANN HANLON

GTEA Board Member

Executive Director, Perimeter CIDs

As Executive Director for the Perimeter Community Improvement Districts (PCIDs), Ann Hanlon is in charge of the organization's daily operations, as well as its investments in transportation infrastructure.

The CIDs have an annual operating budget of over $8 million. Previously, Ann was the Executive Director of the North Fulton CID for 13 years, beginning when it was a start-up. Prior to entering the CID space, Ann served as a Senior Program Specialist at the Atlanta Regional Commission.

A native of South Georgia, Ann received a Bachelor of Arts degree with a double major in Government and Computer Science from the University of Notre Dame, and a Masters of Public Administration degree in Management and Finance from Georgia State University.

Ann was honored as the "Woman of the Year" by the Women's Transportation Seminar Atlanta Chapter in November 2016. In April 2015 and again in 2017, Governor Nathan Deal appointed Ann to the Board of Directors for the Georgia Regional Transportation Authority where she serves on the Projects and Planning committees. Ann was named a "Notable Georgian" by Georgia Trend Magazine in 2017, one of the Atlanta Business Chronicle's "Women Who Mean Business" in 2015 and as one of Georgia Trend Magazine's "40 under 40" in 2012 and 2018.

In 2019, she served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Council for Quality Growth as the Council's first female Chairman. Additionally, Ann serves on the Board of Directors for the Women's' Transportation Seminar, Atlanta Chapter, the Greater North Fulton Chamber of Commerce, the Sandy Springs and Dunwoody Perimeter Chambers of Commerce, and the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce.

In 2020, Ann was appointed by CEO Michael Thurmond to the DeKalb County COVID19 task force, and continues to serve in that capacity as a representative of large business interests in Perimeter during the pandemic.

Ann is a graduate of the Regional Leadership Institute of the Atlanta Regional Commission (2010) and Leadership North Fulton (2006). Personally, Ann is a volunteer with the Girl Scouts of Metro Atlanta, a member of All Saints Catholic Church and a sustainer with the Junior League of Atlanta. She lives in Dunwoody with her husband, Michael, and their two daughters.
