

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A COMMENDATION

- WHEREAS: Diometra Chandler Aldridge, a distinguished citizen of Georgia, faithful wife to her husband Philip, and devoted mother to her son Chandler, and invaluable colleague to Corporate Environment Risk Management, LLC (CERM) Co-Founders Albert Edwards and Marcus Reese, passed away on June 25, 2021; and
- WHEREAS: Ms. Aldridge was a successful Human Resource Executive as Director of Corporate Management for CERM, a strategic thought leader to the Executive and Management Committees, and a devoted public servant through various non-profit associations; and
- WHEREAS: Ms. Aldridge was recognized as one of the Top 100 Influential Women in Georgia Engineering by ACEC Georgia in 2019 and 2021, and played an integral role in helping CERM win the US Department of Commerce's Minority Construction Firm of the Year in 2020; and
- WHEREAS: Ms. Aldridge was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation for integrity, loyalty, fairness, and kindness, exemplifying the spirit of Christ to make this world a better place in which to live; and
- WHEREAS: Diometra Chandler Aldridge leaves a legacy of using her gifts and talents to bear fruit in different seasons of her life. Whether it was investing in the lives of her family, friends, and colleagues, promoting STEM workforce development programs for youth in her community, or traveling to new destinations with her son Chandler and husband Philip, Diometra was a woman favored by God and will be missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing her; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby commend
